

JOLEEN BAZA, MS, LPC

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH PROVIDER

Joleen is a Licensed Professional Counselor in both outpatient and residential treatment settings and has over 12 years of experience in social services. She has provided services to clients in all stages of life ranging from early childhood, adolescence, and adulthood, working with neuro-diverse populations, severe cognitive, emotional, and behavioral disturbances.

Masters of Science in Clinical Psychology
Bachelors of Arts in Psychology and Sociology
University of Guam

Specialized Training

- 'Fully-Trained' EMDR therapist
- Trauma Trained Somatic Practitioner
- The Neurobiology of Attachment
- Working with the Pain of Abandonment

Previously with Latte Treatment Center,
Project Karinu /DPHSS and Sanctuary Inc.

Associations and Research

- Board Member for Guam Legal Services- Disability Law Center
- Graduate Thesis: A Search for Meaning: Narrative Accounts of Female Spouses Who Care for Partners with a Severe Injury or Chronic Illness.

If we cant express or aren't expressing our true feelings, its not going to be a genuine relationship.
Ron Siegel, PsyD

